FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LOCAL CONTRACTOR IS USING COURTSPO RTS HIGH PROFILE CUSTOMER NAMES AS KEYWORDS FOR MAJOR SEARCH ENGINES ON THE INTERNET

Courtsports Inc. – The Pacific Northwest’s premier gym flooring company announced on Wednesday, April 11, 2006, that a local wood flooring contractor is using Courtsports high profile customers as key words on major search engines to market their businesses website and services.

It is alleged that this company has also taken copyright material from the Courtsports Inc. website www.courtsportsinc.com and has pasted this material directly to their website to promote their business. “It is very important that our high profile customers know we have not given permission to anybody or any business to use their company, facility, or team names to other websites not owned and operated by Courtsports Inc.,” explains Erik Sigurdson – President / CEO of Courtsports Inc. “Further, this company is now being investigated by our law firm, Stoel Rives LLP, in Portland, Oregon, and based upon the investigation a full statement will be released including the contractor name,” says Sigurdson.

If you would like more information about his topic please contact Erik Sigurdson at (503) 320-7281 or email to eriksigurdson@courtsportsinc.com.
