FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COURTSPO RTS TEAMS UP WITH OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Courtsports Inc. – The Pacific Northwest’s premier gym flooring company has announced a contract to refinish Oregon State’s Gil Coliseum. The refinishing work will take place during the Summer of 2005. Courtsports services include: gym floor installations, gym floor sanding, gym floor refinishing, game line painting, and court floor graphics. Some of their clients include the Portland Trail Blazer’s Rose Garden Arena, Washington State Universities Friel Court, The Nike World Headquarters Campus, University of Oregon’s McArthur Court, as well as many other colleges, universities, public & private schools, and athletic facilities.

“This contract with Oregon State University is a big deal to me because I really enjoy working on the high profile courts,” explained Erik Sigurdson – President / CEO of Courtsports Inc. “However we treat all floors the same whether it’s an elementary school gym floor or an NBA floor, we put a great deal of pride into all our finished products,” says Sigurdson. This is one of several other college and universities contracts Courtsports has already scheduled including for the Summer of 2005 including Lewis & Clark College, Corban College (formerly Western Baptist College) University of Nevada Reno, Evergreen College, Western Oregon University, Clark College, Northwest University, Washington State University, with more in the works.

"I'm amazed at the responses we are getting from our marketing efforts especially the website on a national scope," says Sigurdson. Due to the national recognition Courtsports is working on a large expansion plan to put dealerships of Courtsports into major metro areas across the United States. If you are interested in becoming a dealer of Courtsports please contact Erik Sigurdson at eriksigurdson@courtsportsinc.com.
